

Israel Bet Shemesh

pilznoworkinspired@gmail.com

Summary

The Pilzno Work Inspired mission is to bridge the gap between parnassa and spirituality. We are bringing to life the Jewish vision of a thriving workforce where every man and woman is experiencing satisfaction, fulfillment, and increased connection to their Judaism through their jobs, careers, and businesses. We deliver engaging educational content, workshops, and training that blends leading strategies for financial, career, and business success with inspiring and tangible Torah wisdom. We provide a unique toolset for a Jew encountering the world of finances, work, business, and career. <https://pilznoworkinspired.com/>

What does Pilzno offer?

Content for All Demographics

- Pilzno Work Inspired content is tailored to meet the needs of Jews at different stages of their finances, business, and career. Core areas include:
  - Employees in all fields who seek greater productivity, fulfillment, and work-life balance
  - Women in the workforce who strive to excel at home and in the office
  - Business owners who are eager to grow their business and experience more work-life balance
  - Young adults choosing a career path
  - Yeshiva and Kollel students preparing to enter the workforce
  - Job seekers looking for gainful employment

In-Depth Torah Study Program

- Pilzno Work Inspired runs a one-of-a-kind Torah study program giving the opportunity for professionals and business owners to understand the foundations of finance, work, and business through the lens of Torah sources while also receiving mentorship throughout the program.

- Topics include:
  - Why Jews work - Is it just about money?
  - Parnassa - Is it a destination or journey?
  - The 'curse of work' - Was work designed to be stressful?
  - Bitachon and hishtadlut - How do they work together?
  - Money and materialism - What type of lifestyle should we be looking for?
  - The hashkafa of vacation

Professional Workshops

- Pilzno Work Inspired runs both in-person and virtual workshops for communities and businesses worldwide.
- Workshops focus on how to create employee engagement and build productive work environments within the Jewish community.

Curriculum

- Pilzno Work Inspired creates personalized curriculums for other nonprofits seeking to empower their communities in the area of finance, work, and business from a uniquely Jewish perspective.

Community Network and Think Tank

- Pilzno Work Inspired has created a community of driven Jewish professionals and business owners seeking to imbue their workday with more meaning and Jewish connection.
- Our community in-person and virtual meetups are a platform for networking, providing support, and brainstorming to solve workplace and business problems facing our communities.